Short Game School

SCHOOL PHILOSOPHY:

The philosophy of the COGA Short Game School is to provide an atmosphere in which competitive golfers will improve their scoring skills. The short game school is designed for players who are committed to raising their game to another level.

College Coaches and PGA professionals will combine comprehensive instruction within college-level practice sessions.

Areas of the short game that will be covered include:

- * Comprehensive Short Game Clinic
- * Distance Wedge Play
- * Green Reading
- * Effective Practice Habits
- * Special Situations
- * Putting / Chipping / Pitching / Bunker Play
- * Recruiting
- * Visualization & Fitness for Competitive Golf

PERSONALIZED INSTRUCTION:

The student:staff ratio will not exceed 6:1. This ratio ensures that each student will receive individualized attention that will be tailored to his or her specific needs. Upon completion of the short game school, each student will receive a written practice plan. This plan will be the guide that will enable students to improve after leaving the short game school.

COGA SHORT GAME SCHOOL AGES:

The Short game school is open to competitive young men and women ages 14-18.

COGA SHORT GAME SCHOOL HOURS:

Day 1: 8:45 a.m. - 9:00 p.m. (lunch & dinner provided)
Day 2: 9:00 a.m. - 6:00 p.m. (lunch provided for all students, breakfast provided for residential)

SHORT GAME SCHOOL FEES:

Fees for each 2-day session of the COGA Short Game School are:

Residential Student:	$ 315.00
Commuter Student:	$ 245.00

Junior Academy

JUNIOR ACADEMY PHILOSOPHY:

The philosophy of the Academy is to provide an atmosphere in which each student will improve his or her own golf game, while meeting other young golfers and having fun. By the end of the academy, each student will gain greater knowledge in each of these areas:

- * etiquette & rules of golf
- * effective practice habits
- * putting, chipping, pitching, bunker play
- * full swing concepts
- * video analysis of his/her swing
- * ball flight laws
- * mental management and course management

Residential students will take part in entertainment activities in the evenings. The academy will include an 18-hole tournament.

PERSONALIZED INSTRUCTION:

The student:staff ratio will not exceed 6:1. This ratio ensures that each student will receive individualized attention that will be tailored to his or her specific needs. Upon completion of the academy, each student will receive a practice plan. The plan will be the guide that will enable each student to improve after leaving COGA.

- 4 ideal practice greens for putting/chipping/pitching/bunker play

- Short range area with 8 target areas within 120 yards for further short game play
- 18 hole championship golf course that hosts OWU collegiate events

New Addition to COGA!!!

- V1 Video Software & Online Academy
- Each camper will receive 3 free online video lessons

Why COGA is a Great Environment for Golf...

"The small student:teacher ratio along with quality golf instructors & state-of-the-art practice facilities lends itself to one of the best Junior Golf Camps in the state of Ohio. Not only that but its a lot of Fun!"

— Cheryl Stacy, LPGA and former LPGA Tour Player
Former Ohio State player & Women's Asst. Coach at the U. of Michigan

"Jon Whithaus' COGA does a wonderful job of putting each individual student in a one-on-one environment with their instructor - as often as possible. Jon is one of the nation's best college coaches - in any Division! The organization & professionalism he brings to the Central Ohio Golf Academy are what every parent would want for their child's camp experience. OWU & COGA's many facilities are perfect for young golfers to both hone their skills & also to get a glimpse of what college life might be like some day soon."

— Jamie Green, PGA
Former Ohio Wesleyan player & Men's Coach at the Univ. of Charlotte

"COGA has some of the most versatile & effective facilities available in a camp setting. The quality of the course, the indoor putting green & the numerous short game & range options are the best I have ever been associated with. Coach Whithaus has successfully developed camp schedules that fit every junior golfer, from beginner to college-bound! The small group sizes & quality of the instruction allows everyone an opportunity to improve & leave camp with a solid plan of how to improve."

— Vince Lazar, PGA
Former U. of New Orleans player & Men's/Women's Coach at DePauw U.

"COGA is the best value of any camp I have worked. The variety of facilities, incredible staff & personal attention is unmatched. COGA staff features some of the most creative & knowledgeable instructors in the country, which translates into an effective learning experience for all students."

— Adam Pry
Former Ohio Wesleyan player & Men's Asst. Coach at University of Charlotte

"When finished with this camp, the player will have a complete understanding on how & what to practice. COGA is excellent preparation for high school & collegiate golf. I believe that the COGA Camp is as good as any program in the country and would not hesitate to send my kid there."

— Brian Kelly, PGA
Assistant Golf Professional @ Muirfield Village Golf Club
